- On 4 August 1951, 2 single-engine low-wing monoplanes and 2 biplanes were standing in front of the large hangar of Rangsdorf airfield. The low-wing monoplanes were painted light blue, had white-bordered Soviet stars of the planes had a red propeller hub. One 50X1-HUM
 - From 9:10 a.m. to 2:16 p.m. on 15 August, only one biplane was seen in front of the large Buecker hangar at the field. The hangar was closed. The biplane took off for short circles over the field. Trucks were seen at the field. 50X1-HUM
 - After 12:15 p.m. on 16 August, the biplane observed flying on the previous day made local flights. A truck and tank truck were seen in a shed in the northeastern corner of the installation. On 15 and 16 August, only individual officers and EM were seen at the field. The landing field appeared to be neglected and was overgrown with high grass. A wire fence was being set up from the railroad line to the southwest south of the hangar of the former Buecker Aircraft Plant. 50X1-HUM
 - At 5 p.m. on 4 September, one single-engine low-wing monoplane was seen at the field. Two more planes of the same type were in the hangar of the former Buecker Aircraft Plant. The planes were fitted with a radial engine and had their two seats arranged in tandem; their landing gears retracted inward. No armament was seen. Fourteen V type engines were stored in front of the workshops. *
- * Comment. The occupation of Rangsdorf airfield has not changed. No unit is stationed there. An aircraft repair shop is believed to be located in the hangars. The single-engine low-wing monoplanes mentioned in the report are believed to be Yak-11s. 50X1-HUM
